The Resurrection of Our Lord

Welcome

Stand

Alleluia, Alleluia! Hearts to Heaven

LSB 477

1 Alleluia, alleluia!

Hearts to heav'n and voices raise:
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise;
He who on the cross a victim
For the world's salvation bled—
Jesus Christ, the King of Glory,
Now is risen from the dead.

2 Alleluia, Christ is risen!

Death at last has met defeat:
See the ancient pow'rs of evil
In confusion and retreat;
Once he died, and once was buried:
Now he lives forevermore,
Jesus Christ, the world's Redeemer,
Whom we worship and adore.

3 Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to God on high:
Alleluia to the Savior
Who has gained the victory;
Alleluia to the Spirit,
Fount of love and sanctity!
Alleluia, alleluia
To the triune Majesty!

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

Confession and Absolution

- P Sisters and brothers in Christ: on this holy morning we have gathered to greet the rising Son. It was for you that he died; for a broken and sinful creation. In his resurrection he has given you the gifts of forgiveness and new life. In Holy Baptism, we were joined together with him in his death and united with him in his resurrection. Today we celebrate because we share in his victory over death.

With this promise in mind, we can be honest about who we are and how we have lived. Because he gives us new life, we can reflect on our sinful nature and the selfish and self-serving patterns of our lives. We know that our sin no longer has power; as the apostle Paul says, “I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.” As we confess the truth of our sinfulness before God and one another, we do so without fear; the first Easter morning speaks the promise of God to each of us. We dismiss the devil, our old nature, sin, death, and evil. Christ the Lord has conquered all these, and we speak of them without fear because they no longer have power over us.

We take time in silence to confess our personal and communal sin before God, confident that we will receive forgiveness.

- P Gracious God,
C I confess that I am a sinner. I have been disobedient to you in thought, word, and action. I have injured others intentionally and unintentionally. Forgive me, O Lord, for what I have failed to do and for what I have failed to become. For the sake of Jesus Christ, my Lord, work in me your new creation. Let Jesus live in me, and love your children in the world through me.
P Rejoice and celebrate, children of God! In Christ Jesus, God has removed your sin, opened your tomb, and silenced death. God is faithful, and grants forgiveness and new life to those who live in death. It is my joy to announce the grace of God to all of you, and by the command of Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit. Thanks be to God; you are truly God's own child, sharing in the resurrection of Christ. He has promised to make all things new, and he will renew your life.

C Amen! Alleluia!

Sharing of the Peace

P The peace of the risen Lord be with you always.

C And also with you.

P We share Christ's peace with one another.

The people greet one another in the name of the Lord, saying, "Peace be with you," as a sign of reconciliation and of the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (Matt. 5:22-24; Eph. 4:1-3).

Prayer of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray. God of mercy, we no longer look for Jesus among the dead, for he is alive and has become the Lord of life. Increase in our minds and hearts the risen life we share with Christ, and help us to grow as your people toward the fullness of eternal life with you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 65:17-25

¹⁷ "See, I will create new heavens and a new earth.

The former things will not be remembered,
nor will they come to mind.

¹⁸ But be glad and rejoice forever in what I will create,
for I will create Jerusalem to be a delight
and its people a joy.

¹⁹ I will rejoice over Jerusalem and take delight in my people;
the sound of weeping and of crying will be heard in it no more.

²⁰ "Never again will there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not live out his years;

the one who dies at a hundred will be thought a mere child;
the one who fails to reach a hundred will be considered accursed.

²¹ They will build houses and dwell in them;
they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

²² No longer will they build houses and others live in them, or plant and others eat.

For as the days of a tree,
so will be the days of my people;
my chosen ones will long enjoy
the work of their hands.

²³ They will not labor in vain,
nor will they bear children doomed to misfortune;
for they will be a people blessed by the LORD,
they and their descendants with them.

²⁴ Before they call I will answer;
while they are still speaking I will hear.

²⁵ The wolf and the lamb will feed together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox,
and dust will be the serpent's food.

They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain,"

says the LORD.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

New Testament Reading

1 Corinthians 15:19-26

¹⁹ If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

²⁰ But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹ For since Death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. ²² For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. ²³ But each in turn: Christ, the first fruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him. ²⁴ Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power. ²⁵ For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶ The last enemy to be destroyed is Death.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Luke 24:1-12

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke the twenty-fourth chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. ² They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³ but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. ⁵ In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? ⁶ He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: ⁷ 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.' " ⁸ Then they remembered his words.

⁹ When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. ¹⁰ It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. ¹¹ But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. ¹² Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

P This is the Gospel of our Lord.

Creedal Statement

- P We confess together our faith in the resurrected Lord.
- C I believe that Jesus Christ is my Lord. He has redeemed me from death that I may be his own and live under him in his kingdom and serve him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as he is risen from the dead and lives and reigns to all eternity. On the last day the Holy Spirit will raise me and all the dead, and give eternal life to me and all believers in Christ. This is most certainly true.

Prayers of the Church

- P In joyful confidence, let us pray by the power of the Holy Spirit to the Father of our risen Lord Jesus, on behalf of the world, the Church, and one another. Thank you, dear Father, for the forgiveness, peace, and salvation won for us by your beloved Son. Tune our hearts to sing his praise. Purify our spirits so we may behold his beauty forever. Strengthen our minds to learn the depths of his love. Open our mouths to proclaim his victory over death, our ancient enemy. Fill our lives with your Spirit, so that in all things, we bear witness to Jesus' triumph over sin, death, and the devil. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P Adorn your Church with faith, hope, and love. Look kindly upon our worship of your risen Son. Give it peace within this congregation, and peace within the world. Make it radiant in faith, lovely in holiness, and beautiful in charity. By its words and deeds, bring many to know and adore Jesus as Savior and Lord. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P Fill our persecuted sisters and brothers with faith, courage, and joy. Let their faces shine with confidence in the victory of Jesus over everything that torments them. Let that light shine on their enemies, so they see the truth of Jesus' lordship, and turn to him in repentant faith. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P Feed the people of this congregation with the milk and honey of sincerity and truth. Grant with your mercy, forgiveness, and goodness. Use us to draw many who are distant into your welcoming embrace, so together we sing: "Christ is risen! Alleluia!" Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P We ask your blessing upon visitors in our midst. Some may be discouraged or distracted, puzzled or doubtful, bitter, or disbelieving. You love them all for the sake of your dear Son. Give us fitting words and loving hearts, so we share the hope that is in us on account of Jesus' resurrection. Give them new, or renewed, faith in Christ, for he is their hope and heart's desire. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P Bestow your peace upon this weary and war-sick world. Teach all who wield authority and power, in any field or enterprise, to use those gifts wisely and humbly. And give to all – especially those who are poor, forgotten, grieving, or despairing – a foretaste of the joys you have prepared for all who love you. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P Even in this season of gladness, some people must risk their lives to protect others and stand against the forces of chaos and hatred. Shield, strengthen and direct them, dear Lord. Let their words and deeds accomplish your will. Keep them safe; support their loved ones; and speed the day when war shall be no more. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P Grant that Jesus' triumph over sin and death may bless all who are suffering in any way. Especially we lift before you the needs of... Turn their mourning into singing, and exchange their sackcloth of sorrow for the mantle of praise and the garment of joy. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P O most kind and loving Father, your crucified and risen Son has promised to lead your chosen people through the bitter portals of death itself. We thank you for the lives and the faithful witness of those who have already gone to be with Jesus. Let your Son accompany us along our pilgrimage, to lighten our load and illuminate our path. Let your Holy Spirit fill us with confidence and compassion. And let us, with all the redeemed of every time and place; every race, nation, and tongue, stand before your throne and sing your praise in strains of triumphant gladness for ever and ever and to the ages of ages. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

P We praise and magnify you, holy Father; we entrust our prayers and petitions to you in the name and for the sake of your dear Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

Presentation of the Offering

P Gracious Lord, what can we give to thank you for the gift of eternal life? You do not need our sacrifices, for as the scripture says, "Every animal of the forest is yours, and the cattle on a thousand hills." (Psalm 50:10) Yet we bring before you our offerings not only as tokens of gratitude but as signs that the treasures of a people bound by sin and death will not hold power over those who have been given new life. Accept these gifts, we pray, and use them to support the sharing of your good news that many more may rejoice in your resurrection.

C Amen.

Proper Preface

P It is truly good, right and proper everywhere and always to give thanks to you, loving Father, holy and almighty Lord, eternal God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, but the central and chief reason we have to praise you is the glorious resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord; for he is the very Passover lamb, given for us, who has taken away the world's sin. By his death he destroyed death, and by his rising to life he has restored to us everlasting life. Therefore, with angels and archangels, the saints in heaven and those on earth, we glorify your name, praising you and singing:

The Words of Our Lord

- P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when he was betrayed...
When we eat this bread we share the body of Christ. When we drink this cup we share the blood of Christ.
- C Reveal yourself to us, O Lord, in the breaking of bread, as once you revealed yourself to your disciples.

The Lamb

LSB 547 v.5

5 He rose, he rose,
My heart with thanks now overflows.
His song prolong
Till ev'ry heart to him belong.

ref Worthy is the Lamb whose death makes me his own!
The Lamb is reigning on his throne!

Distribution

We believe that as we partake of the bread and wine in Holy Communion, Jesus the Messiah is feeding us with his own true body and blood. In eating his body and drinking his blood we receive the promise that our sins are forgiven, and that we will therefore live eternally with God. We also believe that this eating and drinking is a confession of our faith.

If you have been baptized into the Christian faith and if you share our understanding of Christ's Real Presence in this meal, you are welcome to receive Christ's body and blood for your benefit. If you do not confess the understanding of the Christian Faith as expressed by the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, you may still come to the altar to receive a blessing. Please fold your hands to indicate that you will not be receiving the sacrament.

At the Lamb's High Feast

Praise to our victorious King,
Who has washed us in the tide
Flowing from his pierced side.

Gives his sacred blood for wine,
Gives his body for the feast—

Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.

Paschal victim, paschal bread;
With sincerity and love
Eat we manna from above.

Hell's fierce pow'rs beneath you lie;
You have conquered in the fight,
You have brought us life and light.
Alleluia!

Now no more the grave enthrall;
You have opened paradise,
And your saints in you shall rise.

This alone can sin destroy;
From sin's pow'r, Lord, set us free,
Newborn souls in you to be.

Notes of Information:

Calling all Families- The project of moving the hill needs some manpower to help get it ready for the next stage. This is a great project for littles and their families to participate in. We need to pick up the sticks that are scattered on the hill and get them picked up. If you are willing to help, we will be having a work session on Saturday April 23rd from 10 am to 12, followed by lunch. If you are able and willing to help, please contact the church office.

NACE : The March fund raising campaign is over. Hopefully with the matching funds, NACE will be able to buy more of the needed food and supplies. The individual food items are always in demand. Many weekend packs go out to the kids, so they have food on the weekend. During February 46,054 pounds of food were given out and in March 58,154 pounds given out.

Clothing closet needs jeans for all ages, and sizes, especially men's jeans. Now is the time to start going through your closets and getting spring things out. The winter clothing season is now giving way to spring clothing.

If you have any questions, call Joan Mager at 763-434-9652.

LWML Zone Rally: Blossom of Kindness- Saturday, April 23rd from 9 am to 11 am at Trinity Lutheran Church, St. Francis. Come hear God's word and then decorate pots and plating seedlings for shut ins. LWML will also be collecting baking ingredients and condiments for NACE and ACBC food shelves. For more information, please see Renee Chambard or Lois Spadgenski.

Movie Night: Join us in Fellowship Friday, April 29th for another Movie Night. We will be watching and discussing Max Lucado's Resurrection. Movie starts at 7 pm.

Women's Ministry- Have you made plans yet to join our "Celebrating Moms" Brunch on Saturday May 14th ? Tickets are available in the Narthex after church through May 1st. We hope you will join us!

Plant Sale- SoC Youth Annual Plant Sale will be May 14th in the parking lot from 9 am to 1pm. Come and get all your flower, herb and vegetable garden needs met and support the youth at the same time.

Generous Giving-Note from Stewardship Board: Generous giving involves more than giving financially. We desire to give all glory to God for the ultimate sacrifice Jesus made on our behalf. Acts of service are not about being acknowledged as the giver, but rather that our giving and service will overflow with much thanksgiving to God. Our acts of giving reflect in a small way the greatest gift we ever received through the sacrifice that Jesus made on our behalf. Even though understanding the price He paid for us is nearly impossible, loving sacrificially in return is possible. Give and serve generously through Him. Love sacrificially for Him.

Monthly 1% Mission Outreach: As God's Stewards, we are called to serve. Keeping mission activities as a priority, is a great way to do this. You can apply for the 1% discretionary monthly mission outreach offering by picking up a request form from the church office. Simply state your outreach project, how many participants you would like, and how the funds will be used. Examples of past activities are homeless kits, shoeboxes for kids, backpacks for World Relief, diaper kits, and supplying food shelves. Requests will be reviewed and approved by the Stewardship Board. God has blessed us with many different talents, gifts, and resources. He will use what He has given us for His purposes.

Bell Choir: Bell Choir will resume on this Wednesday following Lenten Services.

SoC Youth Outdoor Market: The youth will be hosting their craft and vendor fair on May 21, 2022, from 9 am to 1pm. If you would like to participate in selling your crafts, wares, or stuff, please contact Laura Marquardt. Price for a spot is $25.00 for members and $35.00 for nonmembers. Please help us get the word out to the community.

Book Club: The book for March will be Tending Roses by Lisa Windgate. The Spirit of Christ Book Club will meet on Monday, April 25 at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. All are invited to attend our book review. Call Joan Mager at 763-434-9652 if you have any questions.
